

Mabel Hoggard Elementary School Celebrates

Peace Week: “Be Inclusive”

Tuesday, January 18, 2022:

“Wear Your Shirt Backwards” Day

*Students/staff wear your shirt backwards today to show we turn our backs to violence/bullying.

SHOW KINDNESS AND LOVE TODAY:

We say Peace Pledge and start our Kindness Challenge

Tell someone how much you care about them. You can write a letter, tell in person, or send an email.

Wednesday, January 19, 2022:

“Different Shoes” Day

*Students/staff wear different shoes today to show that we choose to walk away from violence and to learn to walk in somebody else’s shoes.

USE KIND WORDS AND ACTIONS:

Do something kind for someone at home or school today.

Thursday, January 20, 2022:

“Promote Peace” Day

*Students/staff wear peace apparel (shirts, socks, jewelry, etc.)

DISPLAY KINDNESS AND PEACE:

Remember to choose some activities from the “100 Acts of Kindness.”

Friday, January 21, 2022:

“Diversity” Day

COME TOGETHER AS A COMMUNITY:

*Students/staff dress in clothes that represents their culture

Reflect: What can YOU do to make our homes, schools, and communities more peaceful and safe?

Have a discussion: Set some goals as a class or a household about what you can do to promote peace.

Please continue spreading peace and kindness each and every day!
